Police investigating stabbing incident in Columbia

Adult male critically injured; investigation ongoing

Howard County Police are investigating a stabbing incident in Columbia that resulted in critical injuries for an adult male victim.

Police were called to Harpers Choice Village Center in the 5400 block of Harpers Farm Road in Columbia at approximately 7:15 p.m. for a report of a fight/stabbing in the common area. Police responded and through investigation located a 24-year-old male victim.

The victim, who is not being identified at this time, was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center in critical condition.

A suspect description is not currently available. This is an ongoing investigation.
